REPORTS FROM OFFICERS, COUNCIL AND COMMITTEES---2023

a) The President's Report---2023

As I complete my current term as President of this distinguished society, I want to celebrate those volunteers who have served with me during the last 2 years on the Council. These learned and talented individuals bring all their hearts and souls into play to continue the work of the Kingston Historical Society.

"Volunteerism is the voice of the people put into action. These actions shape and mold the present into a future of which we can all be proud." – Helen Dyer

Thank you, Council, for your voices and your actions.

This past year has been one incredibly busy time as you will read through the various committee reports here in this document. From our most visible asset, The Murney Tower, to our routine duties as Council to keep the Society strong and meaningful, we have been industrious.

The highlight of the AGM will be the presentation of the Kingston Historical Society Award to an individual or organization that has contributed to the preservation of local Kingston history.

I want to give a huge shout-out and thank three (3) Directors who will not be returning to Council in 2024, Anne Richardson, Dr. Tabitha Renaud and Warren Everett.

Muhammad Ali once said: "Service to others is the rent you pay for your room here on earth."

Thanks for the rent.

Respectfully submitted by Paul J. Charbonneau, President

b) The Secretary's Report---2023

During the past year, the duties of the secretary consisted of preparing the agendas, recording the minutes and then distributing approved minutes for the meetings of Council to members of Council; preparing the agenda for the annual general meeting, and recording those minutes; preparing for the annual general meeting by editing and assembling reports from members of Council; recording the minutes of the annual general meeting of 2023; updating the lists of donors, sponsors, awards recipients and past presidents for the AGM document; providing documentation for grant applications; completing Province of Ontario reports; assisting the president and treasurer in carrying out their duties as needed and, on occasion, corresponding through email or standard post with members of the public on behalf of the Society. In addition to these duties, assistance was provided to the Murney Tower Committee in the hiring of interns and with other human resources activities.

Respectfully submitted by Don Richardson, Secretary

c) The Awards Committee Report---2023

The Kingston Historical Society (KHS) Awards Committee is pleased to have received nominations for this year and make a recommendation to the Council.

The role of the committee is to recognize individual and organizational contributions to the preservation of local Kingston history. The committee has received nominations for the 2023 award, and it will be presented at the Kingston Historical Society Annual General Meeting (AGM).

The Government of Ontario Volunteer Service Awards held an in-person awards ceremony in Kingston. One member of the Kingston Historical Society received recognition for his dedication to our Society:

Organization Name/ Nom de l'organisation : Kingston Historical Society

We will be nominating members of KHS who meet the criteria for this acknowledgement of varying years of service to the Society in 2024.

Paul J. Charbonneau
Chair, Awards Committee

d) The Editor's Report, Historic Kingston 73---2023

The 91 page Historic Kingston 73 should be published by March 1st and may even be ready for the Heritage Event. It is thinner than some years because no less than three speakers did not submit their papers. Dr. Riehl's time was restricted by previous commitments and health, and we hope to publish her paper in 2025. Chris West's time was filled with the arrival of the S. S. Keewatin and so we have simply published a transcript of the talk (most speakers add to their talk after the question period). Graeme Roy's presentation was an active demonstration, and so I have taken the liberty of writing just the facts he gave us in a short piece approved by him. My thanks again to Betty Andrews whose language and grammatical abilities are just wonderful and helped me avoid a plethora of errors. My thanks also to all who helped deliver, saving us about $5 a delivery! We hope you will enjoy and learn from HK 73, and perhaps go to YouTube to watch some of the presentations again.

Respectfully submitted by Peter Gower, Editor, Historic Kingston

e) The Editor's Report, Limelight---2023

Limelight is the newsletter of the Kingston Historical society, published in nine monthly issues from September to May. Allan Graphics is the printer. Forty copies of Limelight were mailed each month, with the other members receiving Limelight by email.

Featured monthly in Limelight were ads for the KHS sponsors, notifications of deaths of members, a welcome to new members, a message from President Paul Charbonneau, the report on the month's speaker by program Chair Dr. Duncan McDowall, the announcement of the presenter for the next meeting and a Murney Tower activity update.

This year, Dr. Jennifer McKendry's Still Standing column featured the Empire Life building, Christ Church, Cataraqui, and Stone Gables.

Articles, book reports and opinion pieces of local historical interest appeared, as well as mention of recently-published books by members and other local historians.

A new column, Ear to the Ground by Elizabeth Durno, reporting on events of interest to history buffs, was begun in 2023.

A profile of Dr. Tabitha Renaud as the Kingston Historical Society Award recipient for 2022 was published. The heritage event in February and the June 6 gathering commemorating Sir John A. Macdonald received coverage. Webmaster Peter Gower posts Limelight to the KHS website. Membership Chair Paul Van Nest proofreads each issue, and posts the website link to those members who receive a hard copy.

Betty Andrews, Editor, Limelight

f) The KHS High School Awards Report---2023

In the Fall of 2022, Council considered new ventures that could best utilize the capital we have accumulated over the years. One was a history award given to a grade 12 graduating student for each of the 9 area high schools. Paul Van Nest volunteered to undertake the leg-work to develop a proposal, in collaboration with the Limestone District School Board as a starting point. Corinna Dupuis, Head of Student Services at Loyalist Secondary School, and he developed the wording below, avoiding reference to grades at her suggestion as the award could not nor should be based solely on marks. Paul felt strongly that senior history teacher(s) were to have a significant input in the selection process. Council felt that the Society could commit $1500 a year towards this legacy project into the foreseeable future. There being 9 secondary schools in Kingston we determined, again in consultation with the schools, that a $150 subject award was appropriate and would be well received by a graduating student. No such award existed in any of these schools, and so Council committed to making this an annual award on behalf of the Society.

In the midst of making these decisions, Corinna, Don Richardson (KHS Secretary) and Paul then began the hard work of recommending the criteria. After many iterations from consultations with history teachers and heads of student services, the following wording was accepted:

This award is presented to a graduating student in each of the nine City of Kingston Secondary Schools who has shown an aptitude and passion for history in any of its many forms. As performance in grade 12-level Canadian and/or world history course(s) will be a factor, the student's teachers will have input into the selection of the successful recipient. The criteria may also include the candidate's intention of pursuing further education in the humanities and/or social sciences. By history, we include its many forms, such as archaeology, anthropology, cultural heritage, social history, museums, etc.

All nine schools participated and last June the following graduates received our award.

Limestone School Board:

Bayridge	Eric Burke
Frontenac	Maranda Krampitz
LaSalle	Natalie Van Wylick
Loyalist	Eli White
Kingston	Claire Tennant

Algonquin and Lakeshore Separate School Board:

Holy Cross	Smantha Pringle
Regiopolis	Jacob Stelter

Francophone schools:

École Secondaire Catholique Marie-Rivier	Dillon Simmons
École Secondaire Publique Mille-Îles.	Noah Ducharme

Members of the Society were asked to make the presentations at each school's graduation ceremony. We succeeded in recruiting representatives for each graduation ceremony: Pres. Paul Charbonneau*, Jean Rae Baxter*, Duncan McDowall*, Michael Murphy* (our Francophone representative), and Paul Van Nest. (* two schools). All were warmly welcomed at all schools and made our presentation on stage.

All schools and their teachers are anticipating next year's awards. We've made a mark on the lives of 9 young people; many more will follow thanks to this legacy project.

Respectfully submitted by Paul Van Nest, Chair, KHS High History Awards

g) The Membership Report---2023

Our lives have been changed in an existential way, thanks to COVID; we've learned how to use ZOOM! And, believe it or not, some don't want to lose the advantages. Our technical person, Paul Van Nest, has grown his skills from providing our programs in ZOOM-only to what is called "hybrid" mode: both in-person and online in real time. We can thank the facility hosting us, Kingsbridge Retirement Community, for providing its social and technical facilities at no charge. So, this is our new norm, and we are getting used to it. What your membership Chair doesn't understand is why this has not increased our membership. It has, on the other hand I think, increased our attendance, including those online, at our meetings. It has, of course, enabled those members from afar to attend.

Type of Membership	2023	2022	2021	2020
Individuals	96	86	83	66
Families (each counted as 2)	66	90	86	78
Students	2	2	4	3
Life Members	8	10	11	13
Institutions	10	11	12	12
Sponsors	9	7	8	8
TOTAL	191	206	204	180

We were pleased to welcome 20 new members this year, but overall, we have lost 15 members. Surprisingly, family memberships dropped considerably this year, in part due to ten converting from family memberships to personal memberships (only one spouse being a member); only four went the other way. Four members died this year: Bob Cardwell, Eleanor Einarson, Frank Milledge and Britton Smith.

We are pleased to welcome two new sponsors this year: Kingsbridge Retirement Community (our host) and Secker, Ross & Perry, our accounting firm. As well, we appreciate the support of our ongoing sponsors, year after year.

We hope to increase the number of student members (fee $10) this coming year by reaching out to Queen's students and, as in the past, enlisting a few to speak to us on their research projects.

We promote our monthly programs through press releases sent by our Publicity Chair, Past-president Vincent Durant. However, our best promotion rests with all of you; please, invite your friends to join us as guests for a program or two, in person or online. If online, either send them the link that I send you or, better, send their email address to me and I will forward the link to them along with some information about our Society. Thank you for your help.

h) The Murney Tower National Historic Site Committee Report---2023

- The Murney Tower Museum had a very memorable and successful year. The museum welcomed 12,600 visitors between May and September and had approximately 1,000 special event participants who participated in the museum's special events and educational activities.
- One of the highlights of 2023 was our audio tour project, which was developed in collaboration with accessibility experts, consultants, and representatives to address the needs of individuals living with disabilities, and improve their access to Kingston's cultural spaces. Between May and October 2023, the audio tour was used by more than 300 people and received a satisfaction rate of 97%. In November 2023, we completed the French version of the audio tour which is now available on the museum's website.
- 2023 also saw the organization of new holiday-themed events and off-season activities, which engaged more than 600 people with the unique history of the museum and provided them with an opportunity to experience the Murney Tower in a different way. This year we organized an Easter event, Halloween event and Holiday event, all in collaboration with the Museum of Healthcare at Kingston.
- In 2023, the museum participated in three collaborative community events. The first one took place in March when we participated in the March of the Museums event and engaged with 600 people. The second one took place on May 8th. The museum had a booth at the Heritage Fair and engaged with 200 students. The last community event took place in August. We participated in the Princess Street Promenade event and engaged with 170 people.
- In 2023, we received a $12,000 grant from the Community Services Recovery Fund and started developing an app and a game for the museum. I have been working with a game developer named Carson Mark, who developed a matching game for the museum (available on Apple Store). I also purchased an iPad Pro 12 inch and iPad stand for onsite experience. The project is currently in its second stage. Carson will develop the French version of the game, add sound effects, and further develop the app for the 2024 season.
- In 2023, I redesigned all informative panels and exhibits and got them professionally translated into French. The biggest advancement has been the addition of informative panels to the basement, which used to be empty. Seven panels have professionally been printed on a durable material.

- In 2023, we bought two new display cases to modernize the exhibits: a gun case and a case for the Parks Canada display. I also bought display materials such as display bridges and supports to improve the quality of displays. I also created four new displays, two for the barracks level and two for the gun platform.
- In 2023, the museum received four donations: two military medals, an account book, and an original key to one of the storage rooms of the basement. The medals and account book were put on display.
- In 2023, we de-accessioned the Robb Collection. Approximately 200 items were retransferred to the Museum of Archaeology of the University of Western Ontario.
- In 2023, we participated in Tourism Kingston's brochure-racking program and the K-PASS program.
- In 2023, I conducted two classroom visits and delivered a travelling collection workshop and gave five off-season tours.
- In 2023, we launched the first edition of our annual event, the Murney Fest. The first edition took place in late July and had 200 people. We offered a yoga session, oil painting activity, and late admission.
- We received three positions from the Young Canada Works and Canada Summer Jobs and got all summer positions funded in 2023.
- In 2023, we had two interns through the HIST 212 Experiential Learning Course.
- In 2023, I joined two Tourism Kingston committees: the Attractions Committee and Visual Creators Committee. I have been attending their meetings, which take place four times a year.
- In September 2023, I started working on the museum's 100th anniversary celebrations. I formed a 100th anniversary planning committee which consists of Anne Richardson (KHS), Peter Radley (KHS), Sam Nicholls (former employee), Baraa Abuzayed (museum volunteer), Ashley Bradshaw (Tourism Kingston) and Tamara Van Dyk (Bellevue House/Parks Canada). The committee will work over the course of 1.5 years with the museum staff on the planning of 100th anniversary events and projects. The first meeting will be held in January.
- In February 2023, I gave a guest lecture on the history of the Murney Tower at the Brockville Art Museum. In August 2023, I led a professional development workshop offered by KAM and discussed our accessibility initiatives. In April 2023, I will be a panelist at the Canadian Museum Association Conference and will discuss our audio tour project.

i) The Program Report---2023

After two COVID years of presenting its lectures on ZOOM and subsequently via YouTube, the Society in 2023 adopted a hybrid approach to its lecture program: live lectures presented in the spacious and well-appointed theatre lounge of the Kingsbridge Retirement Community at 950 Centennial Drive off Princess Street, and simultaneously offered via Zoom. Kingsbridge residents also freely attended the lectures. All lectures were presented at 7:00pm on the third Wednesday of each month. On the whole, the lectures' audiences split between live attendance and ZOOM viewership with an average of about 35 people. KHS lectures are subsequently posted on YouTube. Special thanks are extended to Paul Van Nest and Craig Pettis for their masterful handling of the technical oversight of the lecture presentations.

The Society is most grateful to the Kingsbridge Retirement Community for its gracious hospitality in hosting our lectures.

January 18, 2023: James Reid and Sarah Hedberg provided an overview of the history of James Reid Funeral Home and its place in Kingston business and society since its founding in 1854.

February 20, 2023: In collaboration with the Frontenac Heritage Foundation, we celebrated Kingston's Heritage Month. The event centred around the book launch and subsequent lecture of Dr. Robert Banks' upcoming Warriors and Warships: Conflict on the Great Lakes and the Legacy of Point Frederick (Dundurn). Dr. Banks' lecture focused on the research and writing of the book and his personal perspectives on Kingston heritage. This was an afternoon event at Memorial Hall in City Hall accompanied by afternoon tea.

March 15, 2023: Military historian Dr. Matthew Barrett discussed his ground-breaking use of graphic art – cartooning – to convey historical narrative and analysis. Barrett's pictorial chronicle of events such as the battle for Hill 70 in World War I has been widely featured in the national press.

April 19, 2023: John Grenville, former Curator and Historical Research Officer at Fort Henry and long-time investigator of Kingston's military architecture reported on his research into the city's iconic Market Battery.

May 17, 2023: Graeme Roy, a docent and board member of the Railway Museum of Eastern Ontario, gave us an intimate glimpse of how the telegraph connected Canadians in the early years of Confederation. He reinforced his lecture with a demonstration of telegraphic equipment brought from his extensive collection at the Smiths Falls museum.

June 6, 2023: Dr. Duncan McDowall spoke at the annual graveside service commemorating Sir John A. Macdonald on a theme of Sir John's ongoing relevance in Canadian heritage.

September 18, 2023: Despite their proximity to Kingston, Wolfe Islanders have long prided themselves on the distinctiveness of their island culture. Professor Anastasia Riehl, a linguist at Queen's, reported on her research into the distinctive linguistic patterns that have evolved on Wolfe Island over many years.

October 18, 2023: To celebrate the arrival in Kingston Harbour of the S.S. Keewatin, the new museum ship of the Museum of the Great Lakes, Chris West, the board chair of the Museum, gave a talk on the procurement of the ship, its distinguished heritage and its potential for Kingston tourism.

November 15, 2023: Queen's doctoral candidate Kaitlyn MacDonald's research into what is called "dark tourism" (e.g. haunted walks, cemetery history) delved beyond the superficial into the historical construction behind our fascination with the abnormal and suggest ways in which such analysis may be used to enhance both our historical understanding and tourism management.

j) The Publicity Report---2023

During 2023 we carried on with the traditional routes to publicize KHS events: box ads in the Kingston Whig Standard to give dates and brief descriptions of upcoming lectures; press releases one to two weeks before the lectures or other events, and targeted releases for specific events.

The press releases and newspaper advertisements work well with outreach provided through the KHS website, and the bulletins sent by our membership chairperson to keep members and their guests informed about upcoming events.

Over the past couple of years KHS, and especially the Murney Tower Museum (MTM), have received a significant boost in publicity through the development of the MTM website and its monthly newsletter, along with the Museum's presence on social media platforms such as X (formerly Twitter), Facebook, and Instagram.

k) The Sir John A. Macdonald June 6 Graveside Ceremony Committee Report---2023

The Kingston Historical Society once again gathered at Sir John's graveside at the Cataraqui Cemetery to celebrate the achievements of his long political career and to reflect on his place in Canada's heritage.

As in the past, we were blessed in having Don Richardson as our MC. A warm welcome from Craig Boals, Manager of the Cataraqui Cemetery, followed and a religious reading and prayer were given by Eva Barnes. Alan MacLachlan welcomed everyone on behalf of the KHS and the Commemoration Service Committee. He then introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Duncan McDowall of Queen's University, who gave an engaging talk on Macdonald with a title in the form of a question; "Sir John A.: A Super Hero?"

Betty Andrews then laid a commemorative wreath on behalf of the Kingston Historical Society. This was followed by the playing of the Lament by piper Doug Green. At that time, Warren Everett invited those assembled to raise a toast to Sir John. The service then ended with closing remarks from our MC Don Richardson.

The Society was very fortunate to have Jack Barnes taking photos. It appears that many people who attended believed that it was an excellent commemoration of our first prime minister. A YOU TUBE video of our service is found at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yqoMypEv71s> or on our website.

We are indebted to Craig Pettis for producing the superb video.

1) The Web Site Committee Report---2023

Our web page remains simple, but usually up to date and readable. Thanks to Paul Van Nest and Brian Chard (the designer) for this. We receive weekly questions from all over, some of which are relevant to our mandate, and some of which are forwarded to groups more able to give answers. Through it, we sell at least one Historic Kingston article a month to grateful scholars who have found a reference to the journal but cannot find the relevant copy. Any thoughts on improving the website would be welcomed.

Peter Gower, Webmaster

8. The Treasurer's Report---2023

The generosity of members and others through donations contributed significantly to the Society's 2023 solid financial year. The transfer of funds from the Pittsburgh Historical Society and interest on investments also contributed to the Society's strong revenue in 2023.

Expenditures were lower than budgeted for, so the Society ended the year with an operating surplus.

Under strong leadership from our Manager/ Curator, the Murney Tower Museum attracted record attendance. Donations at the door exceeded expectations. In addition, interest on investments and special events generated revenues for the Tower.

Thanks to grants from the federal government, the City of Kingston's Heritage Fund, the staff required to operate the Tower Museum and related activities were funded without dipping into reserves. Additional grants covered the costs of special initiatives. The Tower has ended the year with a small operating surplus.

Overall, the Society is in a strong financial position. Details are set out in the Financial Statements prepared by the staff of Secker, Ross & Perry.

Doug Petty was designated to review the 2023 financial records for the Society at year end. His report is contained below.
